

ORDINANCE NO. 93-12

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE
CITY OF AMERICAN CANYON AMENDING THE TRAFFIC CODE
TO PROVIDE FOR CIVIL PENALTIES FOR NON-MISDEMEANOR
STANDING OR PARKING VEHICLE VIOLATIONS

The City Council of the City of American Canyon does ordain as follows:

Section 1. Section 12 is hereby added to Article II of the Traffic Code entitled "Penalties" to read as follows:

Section 12. Civil Penalties for Violations of Vehicle Parking and Standing Regulations.

a. Violations of any provision in this Traffic Code governing the standing or parking of a vehicle which is not otherwise considered a misdemeanor under the City Municipal Code, State Vehicle Code or any federal statute or regulation shall be subject to civil penalty as established from time to time by resolution of the City Council.

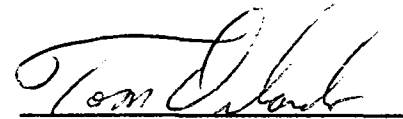

b. Imposition of any civil penalty for a vehicle parking or standing violation may be contested in accordance with the procedures set forth in Division 17, Chapter 1, Article 3 of the Vehicle Code entitled Procedure on Parking Violations (commencing with Vehicle Code section 40200).

Section 2. Section 402 is hereby added to Article XXI of the Traffic Code to read as follows:

Section 402. Repeal.

The preceding Section 401 which establishes a schedule of fines for vehicle parking and standing violations shall be repealed and of no effect upon the adoption by the City Council of a resolution pursuant to Section 12(a) of Article II of this Traffic Code establishing civil penalties for parking and standing violations, late payment penalties, administrative fees and other charges as permitted by state law.
